

Cynthianther (C. L.) May is a licensed practicing attorney. In 2009, she established May Law Group, LLC. For over a decade she has devoted her career to providing competent, diligent, and zealous legal representation to her clients, whether an individual or a corporation. Attorney May has worked with school boards to meet the needs of general education and special education students through the development and implementation of departmental strategies aimed at addressing cognitive and behavioral issues. Attorney May is experienced in monitoring and addressing federal and state compliance, including but not limited to, Individuals With Disabilities Education Act (IDEA) and Title VII.

She received a Bachelor of Arts Degree in English from Stillman College, and a Juris Doctor from Loyola University-New Orleans School of Law. May is admitted to the Alabama State Bar, and is a registered mediator and arbitrator.