

Proclamation

By the Governor of Alabama

WHEREAS, the Community Development Block Grant program has operated since 1974 to provide local governments with the resources required to primarily meet the needs of low-income and moderate-income individuals; and

WHEREAS, the HOME Investment Partnerships program has existed since 1992 to support housing opportunities for low-income and moderate-income individuals; and

WHEREAS, the Community Development Block Grant and the HOME Investment Partnerships programs are among the few remaining federally-funded programs available to address the needs of low-income and moderate-income individuals and small cities; and

WHEREAS, the Community Development Block Grant program has provided the state of Alabama with important and flexible assistance to meet the needs of low-income and moderate-income residents of small cities by funding sewer, water and street improvement projects, economic development projects and other public improvement projects; and

WHEREAS, the HOME Investment Partnerships program has contributed to the state of Alabama's critical resources to support the expansion of affordable housing through activities including new construction of housing, rehabilitation of homeowner and rental units, down payment assistance for new homeowners and rental assistance; and

WHEREAS, Congress and the nation acknowledge the critical value of the Community Development Block Grant and the HOME Investment Partnerships programs and the significant projects and assistance that rely on these funds for support;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Kay Ivey, Governor of Alabama, do hereby proclaim April 11 through 15, 2022, as in the state of Alabama.

Community Development Week

Given Under My Hand and the Great Seal of the Office of the Governor at the State Capitol in the City of Montgomery on the 29th day of March 2022.

Kay Ivey

Kay Ivey, Governor